Share your testimony of coming to faith and salvation in Jesus Christ.

I have attended PGMC since birth and was confirmed there. My faith has always been a part of my life. When my parents separated when I was 10 I visited other churches and denominations as my mother left our home church. I discovered a lot about my faith during that time and my exposure to Jesus was increasing as I relied on Him to get through a lot of challenging times as I grew into an adult. During that time I made a confession of faith privately and publicly

Describe your ministry in the name of Jesus Christ.

Our church is currently in the healing process and aims to provide a safe place to worship and fellowship together and welcome those who need to find a church home. We have continued to be faithful to teach Jesus' word and have stayed committed during the past few years of global crisis and discernment.
