Share your testimony of coming to faith and salvation in Jesus Christ.

I did not grow up in a family that attended church. I left home for college in 1994, where I met my now husband (Eric) of 24 years. He and his family were lifelong members of Triplett. I began to attend simply because I wanted to be with him. I felt the pull on my heart many times when the invitation was played but never felt brave enough to step out. A co-worker, who is a minister's wife, would carry different bible verses in her pocket at work. She and I had many wonderful conversations. She was the one who made me realize I needed to accept Christ into my life. She and I sat on a stretcher after finishing a long day in endoscopy and prayed. I cried and laughed with a sense of joy and relief as I asked Jesus to come into my heart, forgive me of my sins and to use me for the good of His kingdom.

It still amazes me the peace that overcame me that day. Through the ups and downs of life, the peace that remains knowing I have a savior that loves me and is always there is priceless. The thing I realize the most from that day, is how important that first step was for me but more than that, how important it was to have someone who was willing to help me take it.

Describe your ministry in the name of Jesus Christ.

I have sat on many committees within the life of the church, including Chair of Trustees, Chair of SPPRC, Worship and Outreach. While these are important, I find the most significant impact that I make is through our children's ministries.

The children are the future of the church. I enjoyed watching the influence and love of the leaders that helped guide my children in their spiritual journey while growing up at Triplett. Over my 30 years at Triplett, I've been involved in outreach of programs such as VBS, Spring and Fall festivals. I currently write the curriculum for our Sunday School and Children's Church. I am a fill in teacher for Sunday School but lead our Children's Church service. This not only helps me be in the word while planning but allows me to instill the love of God in children.

My husband and I are involved in Bible studies, men/women's group, and adult Sunday School. One of the most difficult callings we have faced was the call to help lead/guide our church through the disaffiliation process. We held meetings and information/education sessions to try make it as smooth as a process as possible. Unfortunately, we had a very contentious leader. This strengthened our bond and our relationship with God.

Service in the General Conference is a special task. Explain your understanding of this task.

My first experience with general conference was with the UMC. This was a very disheartening experience. There was a lot of contention. This was not what I thought it was about. My understanding of the task of a general conference is to set the rules governing church life to ensure the church adheres to Christian principles. Meaning we will review and vote on motions regarding the Transitional Book of Doctrine and Discipline. This first General conference of the GMC should encompass how we can bring other churches to the GMC. The gathering should ensure the feeling of worshiping Jesus Christ and the movement of the Holy Spirit.

What gifts/strengths/passions/talents do you bring to the building up and organizing of the Global Methodist Church?

I am passionate about Jesus. I want to learn. I want to teach. I want others to know the love and grace of God. I love talking to people and feel I can communicate things in a way they will understand. I have been a nurse for 25 years, voted the most caring and trusted profession for many years. This allows me to connect with people on a deeper level. I have the loving and active support of my husband who is also has the same passion and love for Jesus.
